COUNCIL of EUROPE/IMPRESSIONISMS ROUTES

Monique LUCENET, Laureate of the Literary Prize awarded in June 2022 by the Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe

The Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe created in 1987, now numbering 48 covering 3,000 sites in 60 countries, awarded their annual Literary Prize to the Bilingual Book (French-English) by Monique LUCENET: "Impressionisms Routes in France and in Europe"

The prize was officially awarded by Stefano DOMINIONI, Director of the Institute of Cultural Routes (Luxembourg) and Executive Secretary of the Enlarged Partial Agreement which today brings together 36 European countries, during the European Cultural Routes Training Academy which took place in Fontainebleau (France) from May 31 to June 3, 2022. This Academy, classified as an official event of the French Presidency of the Council of the European Union, brought together around a hundred leaders representing 32 routes and 17 different nationalities.

Monique LUCENET's book, published by the Impressionism Routes Network, contributes to the promotion of European identity and citizenship through knowledge and awareness of Europe's common heritage and the development of links and a cultural dialogue within the continent itself, as well as with other countries and regions of the world.
