L'Esquisse- Cultural Hotel: A New Cultural Space in Barbizon
Official Inauguration - March 13, 2024

Barbizon is one of the emblematic sites in the history of Impressionism; he is known and appreciated all over the world. The city's cultural leaders maintain and cultivate close relationships with numerous European artists' colonies, thanks in particular to their participation in the Euroart networks - the European Federation of Artists' Colonies - and Impressionisms Routes©, Cultural Route of the Council of the 'Europe.

The opening of L'esquisse, a new cultural establishment of very original design, is an event in the world of Art and Tourism in the Paris Region. Located in the heart of the village, opposite the famous Ganne inn - today the departmental museum of Barbizon painters - where the greatest artists stayed in the years 1850-1870, paving the way for impressionism, L'esquisse offers a innovative concept of a "cultural hotel", combining tourism and culture, around the theme of European artist colonies. This Space was created by Pierre BEDOUELLE, President of Impressionisms Routes© and Secretary General of euroart and his wife Véronique.

This Wednesday March 13, 2024, the official inauguration of L'esquisse brought together a large number of personalities, in particular Jean-François PARIGI, President of the Departmental Council of Seine-et-Marne, Hamida REZEG, Regional Councilor of Ile de France, special delegate for Tourism and Aude LUQUET, deputy for the constituency.
